

VICTORY FOR THE VIKINGS.

BEAT THE MIDNIGHTS IN A CLOSE AND EXCITING GAME.

Another Hard Fought Contest in the Bowling Tournament Decided by a Few Pins—Great Bend Coursing Meeting.

Last night's game in the bowling tournament between the Vikings and the Midnighters proved to be another very close and interesting contest, which was not decided until the last frame had been finished, when the victory rested with the Vikings by the total of 2361 to 2338. In the twenty-ninth frame the Vikings, who had been slightly in front from the twenty-sixth frame, had an apparently winning lead of 14 pins, but in the closing frame two of the five bowlers fell down, two of them getting splits, and three missing easy spares. This gave the Vikings a chance to pull victory out of almost certain defeat, and they accepted it, making a strong finish. Smith was unfortunate in losing two balls by stepping over the line, and this cost him just about as many pins as his team needed to tie the score. These were the only lost balls of the game.

The feature of the game was the fine score of Lewis of the Vikings. His final total of 541 not only created a new individual score for the tournament, but was also mainly responsible for his team's victory. For the Midnighters, however, both Lewis and Pettigrew fell down, and both Lewis and Pettigrew fell down. Lewis just missed getting 500, finishing with 499, while Swanson knocked down just six pins less. Pettigrew was knocked out of the game with 411. For the Midnighters, Lewis bowled a remarkably strong spare game, getting 19 of them and missing but one, and that in his last frame. He was high man for the Vikings with the good total of 517, while George Bauer pressed him closely with 511. George Nichols finished with 499, and Stewart with 491, but Stewart and Smith made low scores, though Stewart showed improvement in his bowling. The Vikings won the contest, but in spares the Vikings led by 71 to 58, and they also missed four less than the Midnighters in individual strikes with 11, four of which came in a bunch. Summary:
